

KGRUPPE PRIVACY POLICY

CONFIDENTIALITY OF YOUR PRIVATE COMMUNICATIONS

Kgruppe LLC (Kgruppe) does not read or disclose private communications except to comply with valid legal process such as a search warrant, subpoena, or court order, to protect the company's rights and property, or during emergencies when we believe physical safety is at risk. What you write or post in public areas, subscriber chat rooms and message boards is available not only to Kgruppe, but to all subscribers.

PRIVACY REGARDING WHAT KGRUPPE PRODUCTS AND SERVICES YOU USE

Our system automatically gathers information about areas you visit on our service. We do not share any of this data with entities outside of our company. We do use navigational information to understand how our subscribers as a group use Kgruppe products and services so that we can make Kgruppe better.

PRIVACY REGARDING YOUR PERSONAL CONTACT INFORMATION

When you join Kgruppe, we ask you for your name, address, and billing information - including the PayPal account used to pay for your Kgruppe account obligations. Here is how we protect that information:

1. Kgruppe will not give out your telephone number or screen names (e-mail addresses), except where needed to deliver a product or service you ordered.
2. Kgruppe will not give out your account information unless you authorize it.
3. Kgruppe will not give out information that would link your screen name with your actual name.

REQUEST REMOVAL OF YOUR DATA

We do not release or resell your personal data. To request removal of your data, please contact us at admin@takamouniverse.com

Kgruppe also collects and uses other information for internal purposes. Kgruppe may also automatically query your computer for information about your computer system such as the speed of your modem, error messages you may have received, or whether you use a specific operating system software - to help us fit the service to your individual needs and to help us diagnose problems you may be having with our system. We will release specific information about your account only to comply with valid legal process such as a search warrant, subpoena, or court order, on in special cases such as a physical threat to you or others.

SAFETY AND PRIVACY OF CHILDREN

If you want to minimize the unsolicited e-mail your children receive, you should determine what mail controls are available through your Internet service provider to block all e-mail from the Internet or to select the e-mail addresses from which you wish to allow your children to receive e-mail. Screen names and information voluntarily given by minors in public chat rooms, e-mail exchanges, message boards, and other online communications are publicly available and may be used by others to generate unsolicited e-mail.

ACCOUNT SECURITY

We will use our best efforts to keep your personal information - including your billing and account information - as secure as possible.

POLICY CHANGES

A key part of Kgruppe commitment to protecting your privacy is explaining to you how we may use your personal information. This privacy policy serves that purpose, and it is accessible through several means within our service. When you register for our service, you are presented with our privacy policy and should familiarize yourself with this and all other Kgruppe policies at that time. In addition, this policy is easily located in our Legal area.

Whenever we change our policy, we will give you notice of those changes through prominent disclosures. You should sign on to your account regularly for these and other important announcements.

If you'd like to comment on or have questions about our privacy policy, or if you have a concern or policy violation you should contact our Customer Service.
